

Our Big Closing Out Sale Is Now On

Pocket Knives
Butcher Knives
Carving Sets
At about half price

16 Heating Stoves
12 high grade Ranges
At Factory Cost.
Finest Range in Ash- land worth $60.00
at $40.00.

Every Tool in the House at a Sacrifice

5 Cents Will
Buy:---

- 4 Mouse Traps
- 5 doz. Clothes Pins
- A Pudding Pan
- 2 Pint Cups
- 2 Pie Tins
- 4 Kettle Knobs

10 Cents Will
Buy:---

- Any 1 of 400 pcs.
- Granite Ware
- A hvy. long hand-
- led fire shovel
- A pr. Door Butts
- A Small Hatchet
- A Good Tea Ball
- A Good Toaster
- A heavy Rat Trap
- A medium sized
- Drip Pan

The Stock is complete yet. The good things won't last always. This week is the time to buy.

No Trade Cards used during the Sales, as the Prices are cut to the Limit.

Warner

The Low Priced
Hardware Man
Phone 146 375 E. Main

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

O. S. Blanchard was a visitor from Grants Pass Thursday.

Pure maple sugar in 15c cakes at Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

Joshua Patterson of Talent was a visitor in the city Friday.

Watch Rose Bros.' window for bargains in Christmas candies.

S. S. Terrell has moved from 112 Nob Hill to 2 Glenn avenue.

Mixed Christmas nuts. Christmas candies at Butler's. It

J. A. Lemery attended to legal business in Jacksonville Tuesday.

We have them—beautiful boxes of Christmas candies. Rose Bros.

W. L. Smith was a business visitor to Medford Saturday afternoon.

Bulk pickles, sweet-sour dill and sweet mixed. Ashland Trading Co.

Fred Mears was a business visitor from Medford Saturday afternoon.

Mixed nuts and candy for Xmas at Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

J. D. Southerland of Grants Pass is spending the holidays in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neil and Miss Anna Hargrove were visitors to Medford Thursday.

We lead in matter of variety, high quality and low price. Johnson's Jewelry Store.

Al Hopkins of Soda Springs attended to business matters in the city Saturday.

The store with the goods, low price and spirit of accommodation. Johnson's Jewelry Store.

E. D. Briggs journeyed to Grants Pass Friday to attend to legal business.

China at wholesale cost while it lasts. Stouffer's hand painted. Johnson's Jewelry Store.

The usual crowd of young Medfordites were up for the Saturday night dances.

A Christmas present for every child in Ashland at Butler's confectionery Wednesday afternoon. It Harry and Anna Gardner of Copco, Cal., were visitors in the city last week.

A brick of ice cream will tastefully finish the Christmas dinner. Rose Bros. make 'em.

Johnson the jeweler for fine watch work. 97-11

CANDY

Is the universal Gift that carries with it the sentiment of Friendship
without the sense of an obligation.

If your regards
are sincere
let them be represented by

Good
Candy

Crowson's
Elks' Temple

Handkerchiefs a Safe Selection

What a stock to choose from!
Exquisite patterns in fine embroidered Linen and Swisses at 10c to 35c.

Surely This is the Place to Buy Bags Right.

Good enough for anybody, and priced to suit everybody.
Specials, 58c, $1.19, $1.38 and up.

Dainty Collars of organdie, voile, crepe de chine, etc.
Ostrich Neck Ruffs.
Veils and Auto Scarfs.
Boudoir Caps and Ribbon Novelties.

Beautiful Bordered Cloths with Napkins to match.
By the yard, with Napkins or without. A good choice.
Huck Toweling, Linen Towels, etc.

Ribbons for Gifts and Gift Making Such wonderfully pretty fancy Ribbons at 15c, 19c, 25c and up.
Look over the special lots in plain

Ladies' Garments for Gifts

All at sale prices, but none the less desirable for gifts.

SUITS.

Special lots $7.50, $9.00, $12.50, $17.50.

COATS.

Special lots, $5.00, $7.50, $9.00 and up.

SKIRTS.

Special lots, $3.95, $5.00, $5.85.

SWEATERS.

Special prices on all sweaters.

Waists for Gifts or Silks for Waists.
Where can you do better than here?
The newest in either line to be found here.

McGee's
GUY GOODS

Always Acceptable.

Derby Gloves, best for wear.....$1.75
Eskay, fine French kid.....$1.50 White Gloves with black embroidery.....$1.50, $2.00 Redfern Washable Gloves.....$1.00 Kayser Leatherette and Chamois-ette, Niagara Maid Silk Gloves.

Kayser But-in-Nol, black.....$1.25 Kayser Italian Silk.....$1.50 Kayser Thread Silk.....$1.00, $1.25
Niagara Maid Glove Silk.....$1.50
Niagara Maid Thread Silk, $1.00, $1.50
Fibre Silk Hose.....50c

Silk Combination Suits.
Silk Vests or Bloomers.
Eden Cloth or Outing Gowns.
Embroidered Muslin Gowns.
Embroidered Envelope Chemise.
Corset Covers or Brassieres.

Brushed Scarfs.....65c Scarfs and Toques.....$1.25
Silk Scarfs.....$1.50
Ladies' Sweaters, Children's Sweaters and Knit Sets.

Robert Vining is expected home today from Fairbanks, Alaska, to spend the holidays with relatives in Ashland.

Have you tried the tuna fish for salads? We also have crab, shrimp and lobster. Ashland Trading Co.
phone 122.

H. A. Kennedy, a prominent attorney of Medford, was in the city over Monday night attending to legal business.

Miss Marguerite Brown is home from her school to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents in Ashland.

Mrs. C. W. Nutting returned last week to her home at Etna Mills after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Howell.

Butler's confectionery is a candidate for all of the Christmas candy trade of Ashland and will be elected upon the popular ticket. It

Miss Beatrice Miller returned Sunday evening from school in San Jose and will spend the holidays with her mother and father.

We have a most complete line of fine French Ivory. Any article you may want. No more lasting gift.
Johnson's Jewelry Store.

Charley Scofield was a business visitor to Medford Friday, going down to attend to matters pertaining to springs development.

Butler's chocolates. Home-made of the purest and best materials, artistically packed in a fancy box, make the best Xmas gift. It

Mrs. O. R. Brothers of Copco, Cal., was visiting friends in Ashland last week. She was accompanied by her son and daughter, Grace and Forest.

Mrs. A. H. Russell and Misses Nellie and Mabel Russell returned Saturday evening from the latter's homestead at the foot of Mount Shasta.

The nicest line of ladies' leather bags, tourist tablets and writing sets, purses and card cases, etc. Johnson's Jewelry Store.

Miss Olive Thorn, who is engaged in teaching school at Antioch, Cal., arrived Sunday and will spend the holidays with her parents in Ashland.

Miss Edna Wells is over from Klamath Falls to spend Christmas and attend the western division of the State Teachers' Association at Medford.

Only four more days to make your selections. Our stock is at your disposal. It's new and in large variety and priced low. Johnson's Jewelry Store.

Mrs. Gertrude Horn Johnson and little son were over from Hornbrook last week. The little boy underwent an operation for the removal of adenoids.

Mrs. C. J. Foster, who has been ill for several months, is greatly improved in health. Her many friends will be glad to learn of her improvement.

The Ashland students attending Oregon Agricultural College will arrive next Friday for the Christmas vacation. O. A. C. closes for the holidays Thursday of this week.

A free Xmas gift for every child in Ashland Wednesday afternoon at Butler's confectionery. It

School shoes, the best for the money, are Walton shoes for boys and girls, from $1.25 to $1.85 for girls, $1.40 to $2.25 for boys. Ashland Trading Co.

Rev. Carnahan occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church at Medford Sunday and Rev. William Johnson entertained the local congregation.

H. H. Millican, wife and two boys arrived Monday from Klamath Falls.
Mr. Millican comes to Ashland to take a position in the Ashland Printing Company shop.

Those creamy, delicious chocolates, that melt in your mouth and leave the taste that lingers, are from Butler's and are an all-Ashland product.
A box of them will make her happy. It

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Saunders have as visitors this week Mr. and Mrs.
I. R. Bateman and little daughter, who are here from Weed, Cal., to spend the holidays.

George H. Eckert, an official of the concern which controls the Oregon Gas and Electric corporation, was in town last week calling on the local manager, Cliff Jenkins.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ashland were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Medford Thursday evening.

The first of the Christmas shopping rush began Saturday with the biggest crowds on the streets for many a day. The rush at the postoffice will commence the middle of this week when Christmas packages from the east begin to arrive. The outgoing mail was very heavy Saturday.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The first of the Christmas shopping rush began Saturday with the biggest crowds on the streets for
many a day. The rush at the postoffice will commence the middle of
this week when Christmas packages
from the east begin to arrive. The outgoing mail was very heavy Saturday.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

The Misses Suzanne and Mary
Homes of the district south of Ash-
land were among those who attended
the Christian Science lecture at Med-
ford Thursday evening.

Mrs. Walter Blalock returned from California Sunday evening, where she visited the fair, after which she visited her sister in Madeira and other relatives at Fresno.

Leonora Vance and Robert Pelouse of Medford and several other valley collegians were in the party with the Ashland students who returned from the California colleges Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Stokes of Albany has returned to her home after several weeks' treatment under the care of an Ashland physician. She left Ashland greatly improved in health.

R. P. Campbell moved last week from his former Bush street home to his newly acquired property at the corner of Bush and High streets formerly owned by F. H. Johnson.

Ed Dyer of Bandon, who with his wife and daughter are spending the winter in Ashland for health considerations, went over to Bandon to look after business interests Monday.

Donald Walker and R. L. Burdick, Jr., who have been attending North Pacific Dental College at Portland, are home to spend the Christmas holidays. They came in Saturday afternoon.

Hayes brothers have traded their bungalow and two lots, corner of Morton and East Main streets, to G.
S. Butler for property on Garfield street, which they are now occupying.

Don't fail to stick a few Red Cross seals on the Christmas package, whether you send it back east or across the street to the neighbor.
Your pennies never went to a better cause than the tuberculosis prevention work. The seals are on sale at all drug stores and at Kohagen's.

Verni Mills, who has been attending the University of California, and his mother, Mrs. Ella Mills, who has been visiting him at Berkeley, arrived Sunday to spend the holidays in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Neil came over from Dorris, Cal., the last of the week and will spend the remainder of the winter in Ashland. They report considerable snow out on the Weed branch.

Kenneth Lilly, who is attending Stanford University, came up as far as Redding with the homecoming students Sunday and will come up to Ashland with his mother for a holiday visit later.

G. L. Ferguson, superintendent of the Medford district of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and whose jurisdiction extended over Ashland, has been promoted to Helena, Mont., and will leave the valley next week for his new station. His successor has not been announced.

Notice of Sale of Impounded Stock.
Notice is hereby given that on the 11th day of December, 1915, I took up and impounded the following described animal:

One black and white spotted shote, weight about 75 pounds, marked crop off from both ears.

In accordance with the requirements of the ordinances of the city of Ashland, I will sell at public auction at the stable of J. E. Daney, on Fourth street in the said city, on the 27th day of December, 1915, for cash to the highest and best bidder, the above described animal if she shall be unclaimed at that date.

R. C. PORTER,
59-2t
Chief of Police.

THE PAGE Medford's Leading Theater

TUESDAY, DEC. 21
Will Not Appear in Ashland

SELWYN & COMPANY present
MARGARET

ILLINGTON

"A great actress in a great play."—N. Y. Herald.

THE LIE

"Inspiring, reverberating triumph."
—AMY LADLER, in Chicago News.

By HENRY ARTHUR JONES

ONE YEAR AT THE HARRIS THEATER
NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK CAST AND PRODUCTION

Mail Orders Now

Seat Sale Sat. Dec. 18. Prices—1st 14 row, lower floor, $2.00; last 4, $1.50; balcony, 1st 4 rows, $1.50; next 3 rows, 75c; balance, 50c.